

Information on Data Protection for newsletter recipients

We take the protection of your data seriously and would like to inform you about the way we process your data in accordance with the Data Protection Act as follows:

- a) the purposes for which your data are processed and the legal foundations thereof
- b) the type of categories of personal data, the origin of the data, the retention period and the transfer (if any) of personal data to a country outside of Liechtenstein
- c) the statutory foundations of the transfer of data
- d) information on automated individual decision-making
- e) your rights

a) The purposes for which your data are processed and the legal foundations thereof

Purpose of processing	Legal foundation
Sending of statutory duties to provide information (Information from the Financial Services Authority)	Art. 6 (1) (b) of the GDPR

b) Description of categories of data and their processing

Sending of statutory duties to provide information (information from the Financial Services Authority)
Category of data	Description	Retention period	Origin	Transfer Abroad
Newsletter contact data	Email address	after termination of the agreement / after withdrawal	collected directly	no

c) Legal foundations of the transfer of data

No data will be transmitted.

d) Information on automated individual decision-making

On the basis of your personal data, we will not make any decisions which are based exclusively on the automated processing of your data and which have a legal effect on you or which affect you significantly.

e) Your rights

In principle, you have the rights to access, rectification, erasure, restriction, data portability, withdrawal of consent and objection. If you believe that the processing of your data violates data protection laws or that your claims under data protection laws have been violated otherwise, you may contact the supervisory authority.

Please note:

If you communicate data of third parties to us, we will assume that you have informed the said third parties thereof.